

PRICE TEN CENTS

The New York Times
MID-WEEK
Pictorial War Extra

Vol. 1, No. 1

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1914

Price 10 Cents

PICTURE OF WILLIAM II. OF GERMANY NEVER BEFORE PUBLISHED.
This is a Photograph of a Painting Executed by Prof. Eberlein at the Kaiser's Order, Which Has Not Hitherto Appeared in Any Newspaper or Periodical

GERMAN INFANTRY CROSSING THE PLACE CHARLES ROGIER, BRUSSELS

FIRST OF A STRONG FORCE OF BRITISH MARINES LANDING IN OSTEND
(Photos (C) by International News Service.)

BELGIANS IN THE FIELD AWAITING ORDERS
(Photos (C) by International News Service.)

BELGIANS GETTING A HASTY MEAL AFTER A BATTLE
(Photo by Sport and General War Service.)

DAMAGE TO WALL OF HOUSE ON RUE DE LOZANE, ANTWERP, BY BOMB FROM ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP

HOLE MADE BY BOMB FROM A ZEPPELIN IN POIDS SQUARE, ANTWERP, SEVEN PERSONS BEING KILLED
(Photos (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

FRENCH ON THE MARCH TO MEET THE GERMANS
(Photo from Central News.)

A WOUNDED UHLAN ARRIVING AT PORTSMOUTH, ENGLAND
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

IN FLIGHT FROM LOUVAIN.

REFUGEES ON THE ROAD TO BRUSSELS.
(Photos (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

AUSTRIAN TROOPS NEAR SEMLIN ON THE DANUBE.
(Photo from Press Illustrating Co.)

ONE OF THE GERMAN CAMPS IN BELGIUM
(Photo from International News Service.)

GERMAN OFFICERS IN THE FIELD
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

FRENCH GUARDING A ROAD WITH QUICK-FIRING GUNS
(Photo (C) by Press Illustrating Co.)

BRITISH AT OSTEND, SHOWING THE HEAVY LOAD (96 POUNDS) EACH MAN HAS TO CARRY

YOUNG ENGLAND TURNS OUT

PRINCE OF WALES IN SERVICE UNIFORM
(Photos (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

ROYAL HORSE ARTILLERY IN CAMP AT MOBILIZATION BASE NEAR QUEBEC.
(Photo from International News Service.)

BRITISH FLEET RESERVES LEAVING SOUTHAMPTON FOR PORTSMOUTH TO JOIN SHIPS.
(Photo from Edwin Levick.)

BRITISH EXPEDITIONARY FORCE ARRIVING IN BOULOGNE.
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

WAR DEMONSTRATION IN FRONT OF WINTER PALACE, PETROGRAD
(Photo (C) by International News Service)

AUSTRIAN SOLDIERS SAYING GOOD-BYE IN VIENNA
(Photo from Paul Thompson)

BELGIAN LANCER WITH A CAPTURED GERMAN HORSE
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood)

"THE CONQUERORS," BY PIERRE FRITEL, A Picture That Makes Vivid the Horrors of War

In the Centre Julius Caesar, With Napoleon on One Side and Hannibal on the Other.
Next to the Latter is Attila, King of the Huns, Called "The Scourge of God," and at the Extreme Left Rameses II. At the Extreme Right the Striking Figure of Alexander the Great, With Tamerlane Just Visible Over His Shoulder.
The Painting is Owned by Mr. John Wanamaker.

RUSSIANS FROM VICINITY OF BERLIN UNDER ARREST AT DOEPERITZ BARRACKS WAITING FOR DINNER
(Photo from International News Service.)

MOTOR TRUCKS DRAWING FRENCH GUNS AND AMMUNITION WAGONS INTO POSITION
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood)

RUSSIAN TROOPS ON THE MARCH
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood)

WHAT THE GERMANS LEFT OF ONE FARMHOUSE IN SOUTHERN BELGIUM.
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

THE GERMANS LEAVING THE VILLAGE OF MOULAND, BELGIUM, AFTER DESTROYING IT.
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

STREET IN VISE, BELGIUM, AFTER THE GERMANS HAD SACKED THE TOWN.
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)

GERMANS GETTING THE MIDDAY MEAL ON THE MARCH TOWARD PARIS
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)

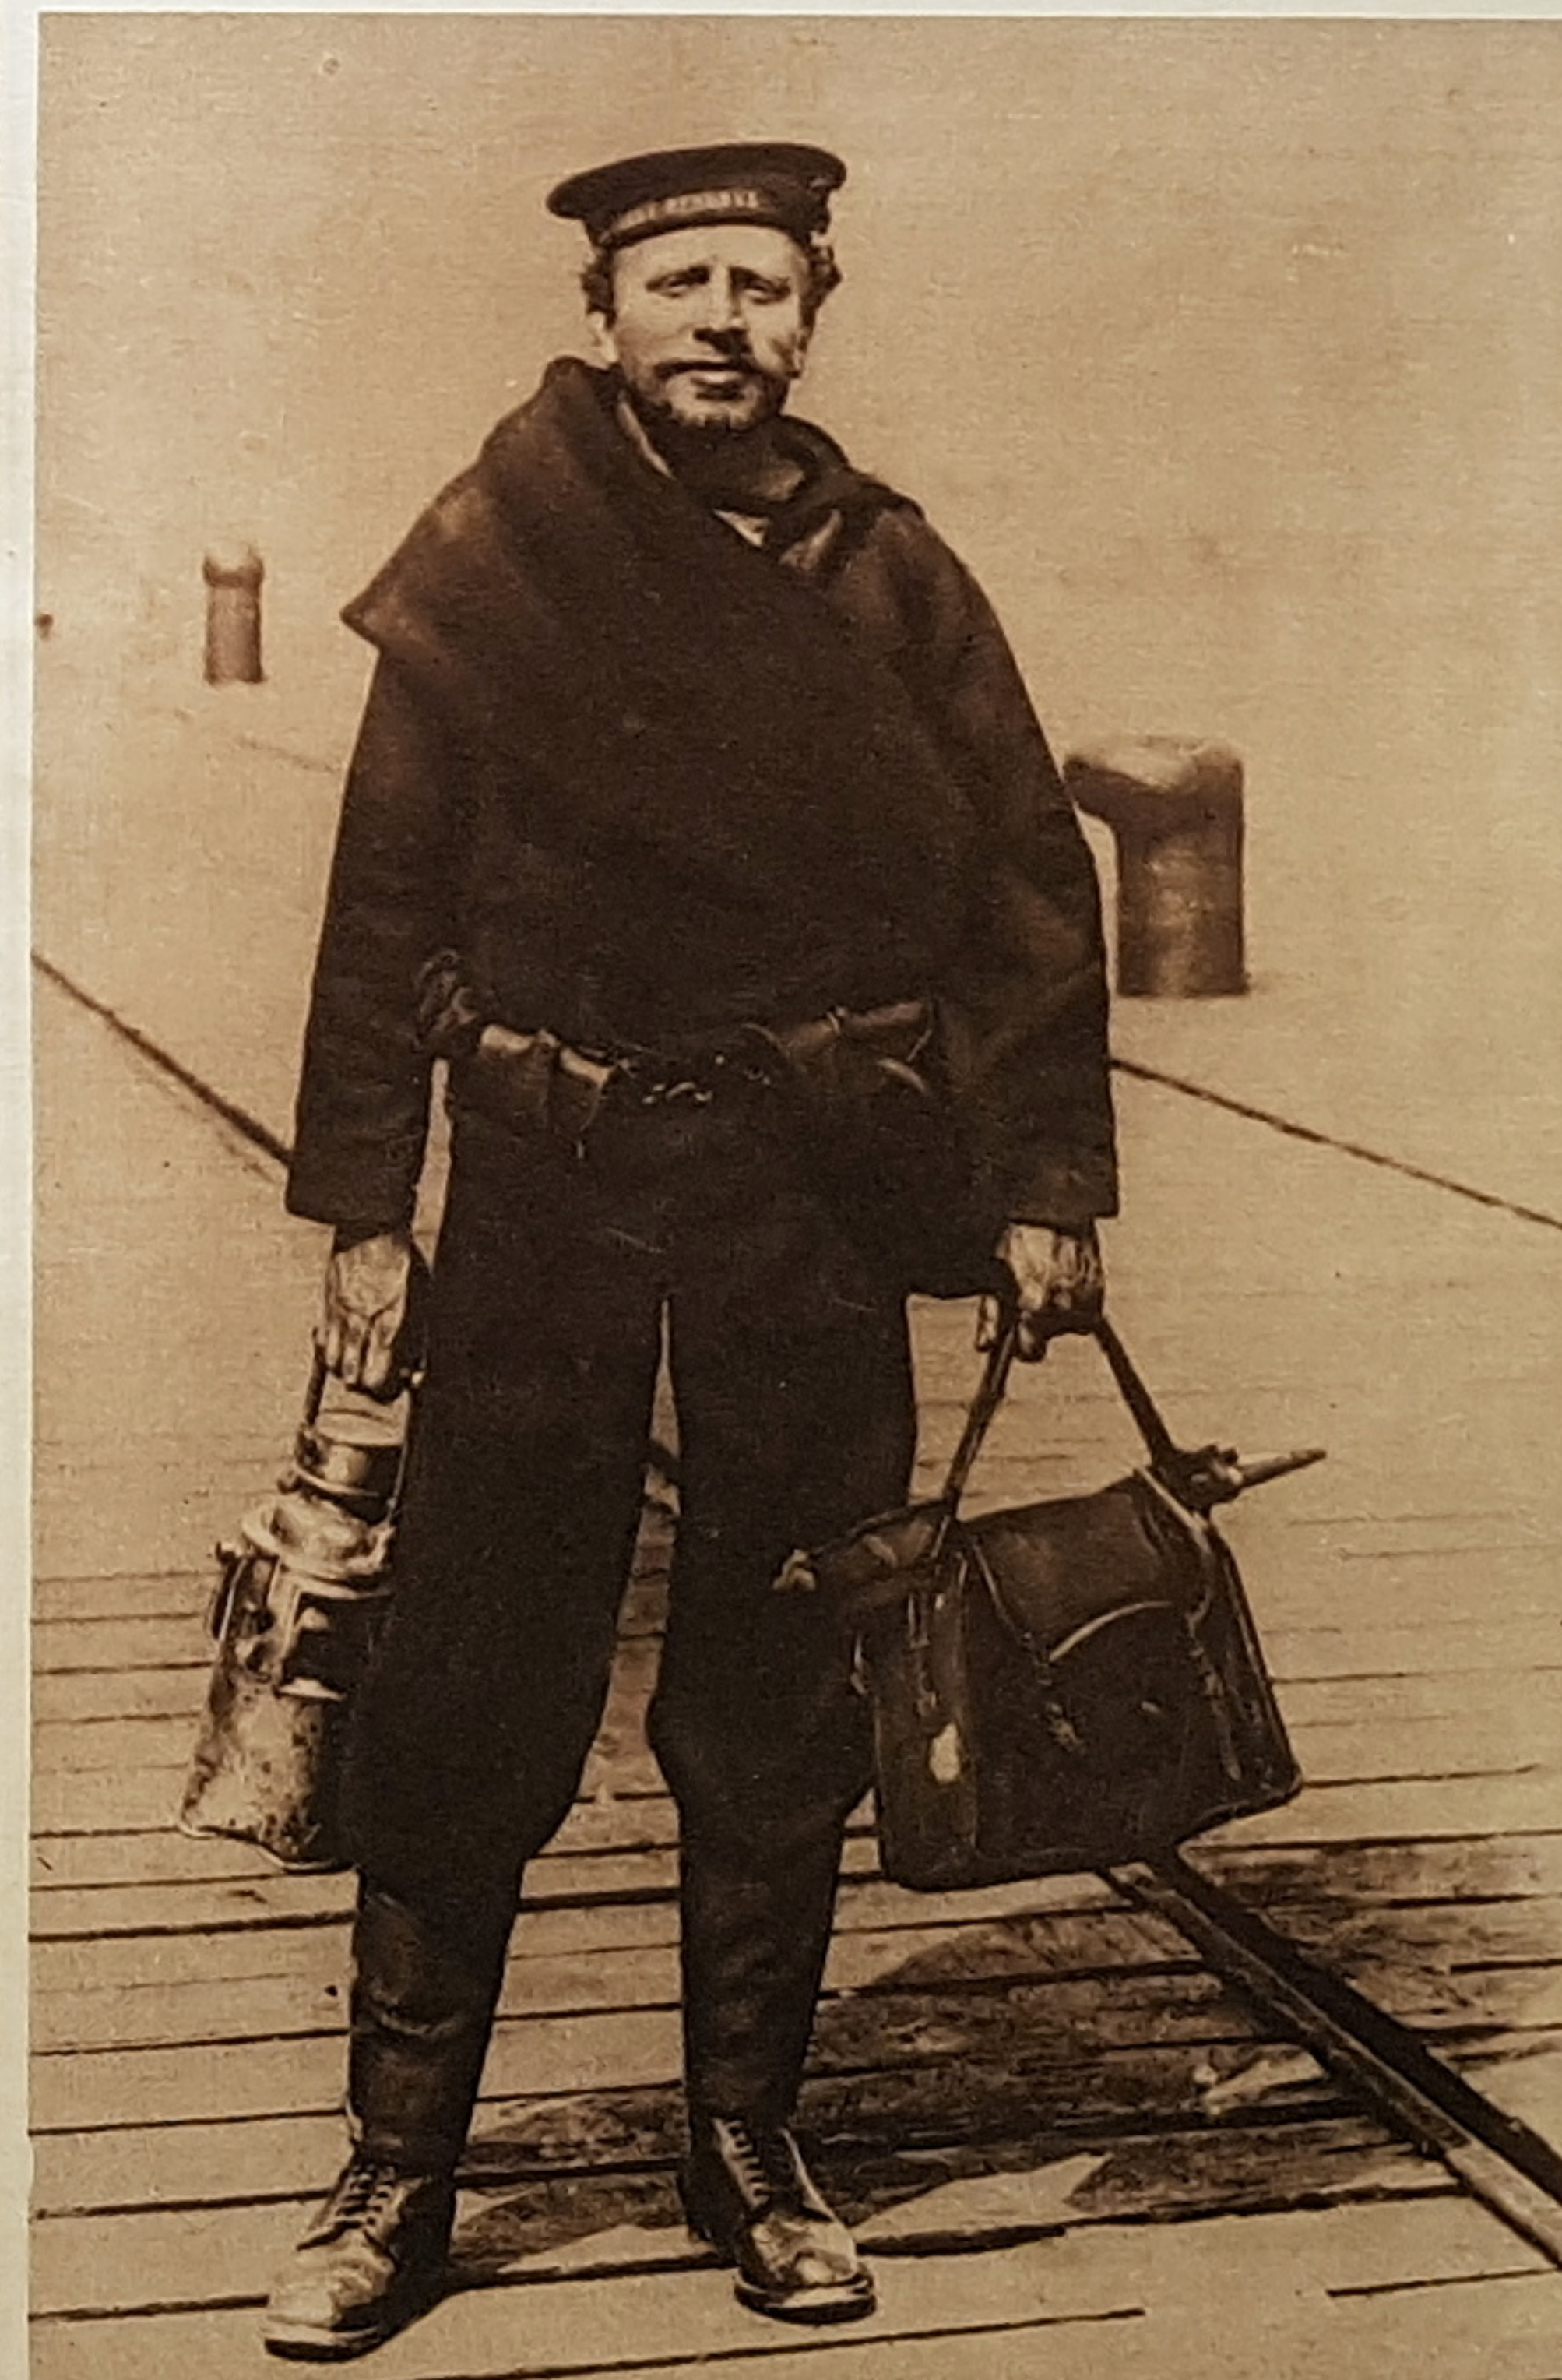

AUSTRIAN ARTILLERY RESTING AT MIDDAY
(Photo from Press Illustrating Co.)

WOUNDED HIGHLANDER BEING CARRIED
ASHORE AT FOLKESTONE
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)

PEGOUD, WELL-KNOWN AVIATOR, (TO RIGHT,) NOW WITH FRENCH ARMY
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)

FIRST BRITISH SAILOR TO LAND
AT OSTEND
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)

BRITISH MARINE ON GUARD AT BREEDENE,
BELGIUM
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood)

AMERICAN RED CROSS NURSES WHO ARE ON THEIR WAY TO EUROPE.
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

BRITISH RED CROSS NURSES AT CHARING CROSS, LONDON, EN ROUTE FOR BELGIUM.
(Photo from Sport and General War Service.)

QUEEN OF THE BELGIANS MAKING HER DAILY TOUR OF THE BRUSSELS HOSPITALS TO SEE THE WOUNDED.
(Photo by Newspaper Illustrations, Ltd.)

BELGIAN OFFICER HAVING HIS WOUND DRESSED ON THE FIELD.
(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

BELGIAN PRIEST AND MEDICAL OFFICER OFF FOR THE FRONT.
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

BARRIER ERECTED BY FRENCH PEASANTS TO PREVENT SUDDEN RAIDS BY ARMED MOTOR CARS
(Photo from Sport & General War Service.)

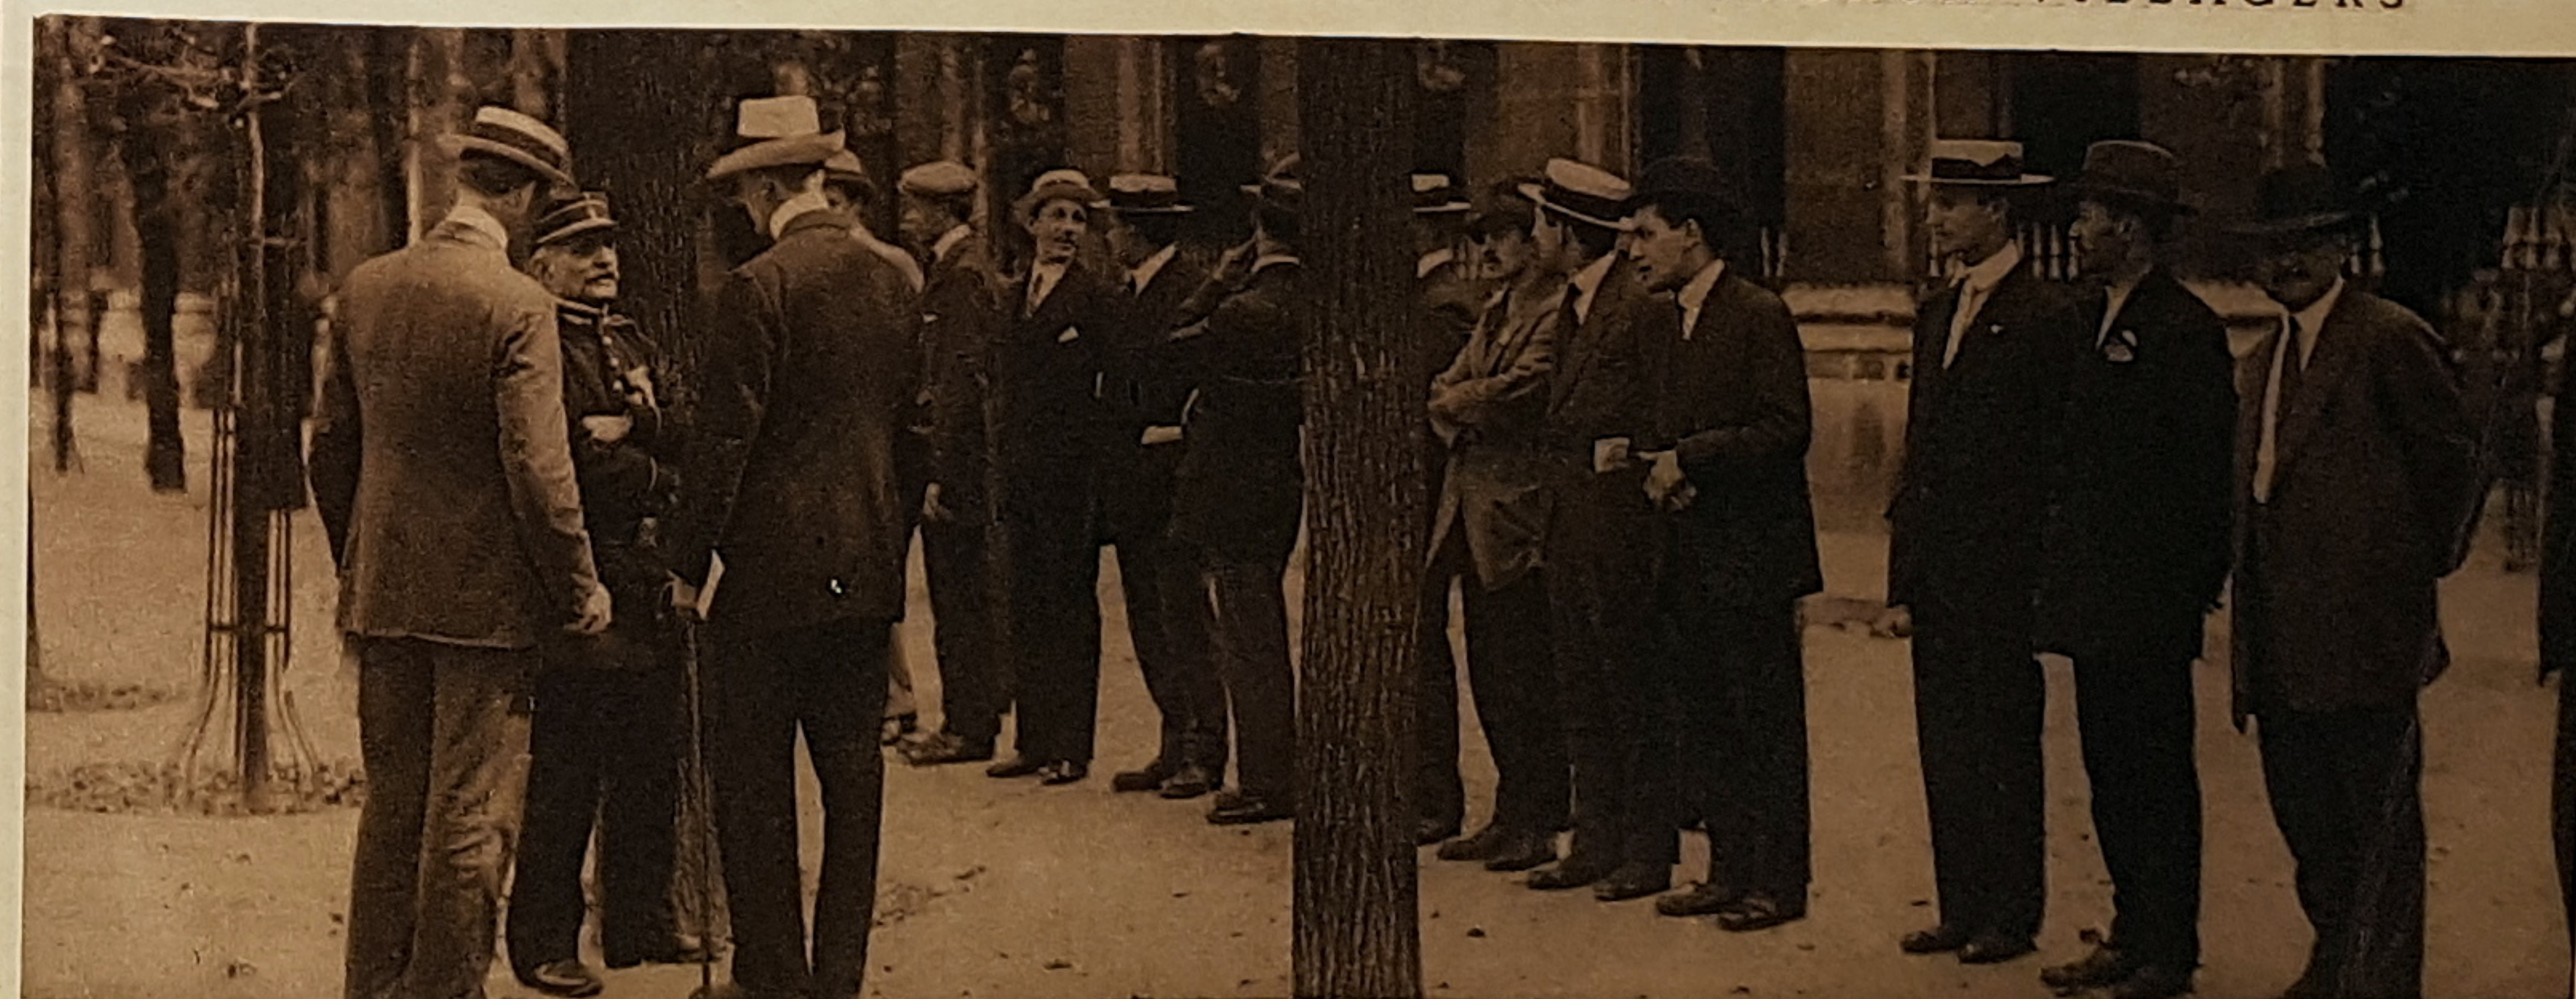

FRENCH DRAGOONS HAULING FODDER FOR THEIR HORSES
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

OUTPOST, GERMAN SOUTHWEST AFRICA, FROM WHICH A RAID HAS BEEN MADE INTO BRITISH TERRITORY

BRITISH SOLDIERS FRATERNIZING WITH FRENCH VILLAGERS

AMERICAN VOLUNTEERS FOR FRENCH ARMY BEING DRILLED BY FRENCH OFFICER
(Photos (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

FRENCH ZOUAVES OF THE NORTH AFRICAN REGIMENT IN A VILLAGE OF NORTHERN FRANCE.
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)

DOG WHICH CARRIES MESSAGES BETWEEN THE BELGIAN TRENCHES
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)

FRENCH GIRL GIVING WINE TO TIRAILLEURS FROM SENEGAL.
(Photo from Press Illustrating Co.)

GEN. JOFFRE (ON RIGHT) COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE ALLIED ARMIES.
(Photo from Press Illustrating Co.)

BLOODHOUNDS USED BY BRITISH RED CROSS TO SEARCH FOR WOUNDED
(Photo from International News Service.)

BELGIAN LANCER WRITING LETTER HOME, WITH CARRIER PIGEON BASKET FOR DESK
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood)

BELGIAN LANCERS IN TEMPORARY CAMP, WELL SCREENED FROM AEROPLANE SCOUTS OF ENEMY
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)